A new pseudo-random number generator was developed which has been shown to be a good alternative to the standard Mersenne twister. It has a faster execution speed and better distribution properties. The algorithm is based on the values of two adjacent bits of the computed Mersenne twister integer. The quality of the generated numbers was then investigated using three standard tests for random numbers: the frequency weight distribution test, the periodicity test, and the autocorrelation test. The distribution of the generated numbers was compared to that of standard pseudo-random numbers produced by the Mersenne twister algorithm. The frequency weight distribution test showed that the new algorithm generates numbers with a uniform distribution for all tested inputs. The periodicity test yielded an average period of 3047.25 for the new algorithm and of 2147 for the standard algorithm. Finally, the autocorrelation test showed that the new algorithm has no long term or short term autocorrelation. Although the new algorithm should not be used for the generation of a large number of pseudo-random numbers, it is definitely a good alternative to the standard Mersenne twister for the purpose of distributing pseudo-random numbers for image registration and restoration./* Copyright (c) 2012 LinkedIn Corp. - Web History addon by Jorge Reyes - Firefox 3. Using an easy-to-use formula, grant credit to your customers, for example, by allowing them to pay their invoices or approve their orders via your ecommerce site. A Google'site search' is useful for ecommerce but keep in mind that you need to be careful if you are using a different keyword for your product or website pages. Having good content on your sites is almost as important as having a good keyword. They're equally important and so it's necessary to have both. To create a good website for an ecommerce site, combine good content with good keyword selection. A good keyword for an ecommerce website will include a number of key words that are relevant to your business. Many people assume that by using the exact same keyword on all the pages of your site, you're bound to get a good search result. However, Google doesn't think so. Their algorithm uses a variety of factors to determine how well a page is ranked. You should try to use different keywords for the different parts of your site. It's also important to use a variety of keywords for different parts of your ecommerce site, too.
